EMAIL ADDRESS REQUEST FOR SHIPMENT NOTIFICATION

In order to better serve you, please provide us with your email address. Once it has been provided to us, we will start sending notification when cases are shipped to you. The email notification will be sent via Fedex.com when the case(s) have left our laboratory and will include the names of patients whose cases are enclosed in the shipment, the estimated delivery date, and the tracking number.

Please either call us with the email address which we should use or fill out the section below and return this page to us. We appreciate your business and look forward to continuing our relationship far into the future.
